OVERVIEW

Carl is a member of the Professional Liability Department where he focuses his practice on the defense of various professionals, public sector entities, and businesses, with respect to claims based on civil rights issues. Carl also assists with privacy and data breach matters, helping clients to reduce cyber risk exposures and navigate incident response, containment, and compliance measures following a data breach.

In 2021, Carl received his juris doctorate from Duquesne University School of Law. During law school, he externed at the United States District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania for Magistrate Judge Cynthia Reed Eddy. Prior to attending law school, Carl had a career working at BNY Mellon on accounting system process analysis and implementations for investment firm clients. Upon graduation, Carl worked as a judicial law clerk for Judge John T. McVay, Jr. at the Allegheny County Court of Common Pleas Civil Division.

Carl obtained a Bachelors of Business Administration with a focus in finance from Kent State University in 2012. He is currently admitted to practice in Pennsylvania.
