OVERVIEW

Louis Iturra is an associate practicing in the area of general defense litigation representing individuals, insurance companies and privately held corporations in cases involving automobile liability, personal injury, premises and retail liability. He works closely with his clients maintaining constant communication to create a well-informed legal strategy with the best possible outcome.

Prior to joining the firm, Louis defended litigation matters under bad faith laws, defamation law, civil rights and whistleblower statutes.

Louis earned his Bachelor of Science from Florida State University. He subsequently attended The University of Notre Dame Law School, earning his juris doctor. Louis is a former member of the Jacksonville Youth Symphony Orchestra and accomplished violinist. He is also an avid rower.

Louis is admitted to practice in the state of Florida.
