OVERVIEW

Olivia focuses her practice on the defense of health care professionals and institutions in medical malpractice and health care liability matters. She joined the firm in the summer of 2023 as a summer associate and gained valuable experience assisting with casualty and health care related matters. During her final year of law school, she continued to work part-time with the firm, further honing her legal skills.

After completing her undergraduate degree in criminal justice, Olivia went on to receive her juris doctor from Barry University School of Law. She successfully passed the bar and became an associate in our Health Care Department.

Olivia eagerly approaches complex matters with enthusiasm and a fresh perspective. She strives to ensure that her clients feel informed and empowered throughout the legal process, providing them with the support they need to achieve their desired outcomes. With a passion for health care defense, Olivia is a dedicated advocate to those in the health care industry.
