OVERVIEW

Neda is a member of the firm's Casualty Department primarily focusing on defending insurance carriers in personal injury protection claims and fraud investigation. She deals with evaluating both medical provider fraud and intentional/staged losses. Neda conducts Examinations Under Oath as it relates to both specific claims and broader SIU investigations. She also has experience defending against fraudulent claims, including staged accidents, leveraging investigative strategies to identify and challenge questionable claims effectively.

Neda was born and raised in Minneapolis, Minnesota before attending the University of Wisconsin-Madison where she graduated with a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science and a minor in Criminal Justice. She moved to New York to pursue her legal education, receiving her Juris Doctor from Brooklyn Law School in 2024.

While in law school, Neda served on the executive board of Brooklyn Law School's Alternative Dispute Resolution Honor Society. She also served as the President of First-Generation Professionals, a group dedicated to providing resources opportunities to students who are first generation immigrants, first generation college or professional students and/or first-generation lawyers.

Outside of work, Neda enjoys live music, cooking with friends, traveling and spending time with her loved ones.

Neda is admitted to practice in the state of New York.
